ocrat favors free raw materials, while Gorman, Brice and others as Democrats are opposed to free raw materials except the farmer's wool. The latter want a duty on raw materials to protect the industries in raw materials. Mr. Cleveland wants raw materials free because, as he alleges, it is a Democratic principle, and he ought to know, for he made it. But in this letter he goes on to argue that it is absurd that "the wool of the farmer be put on the free list and the protection of tariff taxation be placed around the iron ore and coal of corporations and capitalists." He then says: "How can we face the people after indulging in such outrageous discriminations and violations of principle? What does Grover mean by his lamentations about this discrimination against the farmer and in favor of corporations? Think a minute. Grover has forgotten our William M. Springer. He has some Democratic principles, too. He contends that free wool will advance the price of the farmer's wool. If William is right, Grover is wrong in assuming that free wool and taxed coal and iron would be a discrimination against the farmer.

Now, listen again. Grover Cleveland, in a speech April 2, 1892, to the Rhode Island manufacturers, told them that the Republican party had dealt unjustly by them in not giving them free raw materials which would reduce the cost of their products. He now assumes that it would be unfair to refuse protection to wool, the farmer's raw material, and protect coal and iron, the capitalist's raw material. If discriminating against the farmer's wool is robbing the farmer, then it logically follows that to put iron and coal on the free list would be robbing the producer of iron and coal also. For what purpose? Why, to give the manufacturer cheaper raw material.

It is apparent that even Grover himself has become mixed on these Democratic principles he has led himself to believe the rank and file of the Democratic party is afraid will be lost or rendered. Now, honor bright, after the experience the country has had with Democratic stupidity and Democratic principles had not the country better lose the Democratic party principles and all?

To Be Kept in Mind.

New York Sun: The authority of the federal government to investigate through commissioners the causes of the railroad strike and to file its conclusions is practically the same as its authority to investigate the origin and habits of the potato bug, or the causes and symptoms of hog cholera. The collection of information and its publication to the country with an accompanying opinion, is the only authorized function of the special commissioners whom Mr. Cleveland is to appoint to join Carroll D. Wright, the commissioner of labor. No judicial powers go with the appointment. No arbitration is in prospect.

Democratic Principles and Democrats.

Grover Cleveland has taken a hand in the tariff, and it is fair to assume that he does it to save his party from complete wreck, judging from the following passage in his letter to Chairman Wilson:

There is no excuse for mistaking or misapprehending the feeling and the temper of the rank and file of the Democracy. They are downcast under the assertion that their party fails in ability to manage the government, and they are apprehensive that efforts to bring about tariff reform may fail, but they are much more downcast and apprehensive in their fear that Democratic principles may be surrendered.

It is encouraging to know that somebody has discovered that there is trouble in the rank and file of the Democratic party; but it is discouraging to know that the same discoverer has found that the rank and file is troubled for fear that Democratic principles may be surrendered. Democratic principles are precisely what the rank and file want to lose where nobody on this earth may ever find them. They have tried them and have become disgusted and want to be divorced from the aforesaid principles. They have no use for anything, no matter what it may be labeled, that no two Democratic leaders agree upon except in a campaign for votes.

To illustrate, Mr. Cleveland as a Dem-

FRIDAY, JULY 20, 1894.

A DEFIANT ANARCHIST.

The Would-Be Assassin of Premier Crispien on Trial at Rome.

Rome, July 20.—The trial of the anarchist Paul Legi, for attempting to kill Premier Crispien, as he was riding in a carriage on his way to the chamber of deputies on June 16, began yesterday. The court room was crowded. The prisoner, upon being arraigned, said that he was animated in his attempt upon Sig. Crispien's life, much less by hatred of Crispien personally than by a desire to strike at the chief of a prepotent society. "If I failed to kill him," he said, "with a laugh, 'it wasn't my fault.' The prisoner made a vigorous defense of anarchy, and concluded his speech by saying, 'I now await your verdict. If you give a capital sentence, there is always some one ready to avenge his brethren—in France or America.'"

Is It Love of the Thistle, or the Spirit of Economy?

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The agricultural appropriation bill as passed by the senate was taken up and discussed by the house committee on agriculture yesterday, and Chairman Hatch was instructed to ask the house to nonconcur in the senate amendment. The amendment of the senate appropriating $1,000,000 for the extermination of the Russian thistle is particularly objectionable to the committee, and it was decided, by a unanimous vote, to fight it to the end.

WELSH BIBLES.

Editions Through Which the Book Went After Its First Translation.

The date of the first Welsh Bible is specially interesting. It was published in the year of the defeat of the Spanish Armada, in 1588, and serves to remind us what poor provision the English government made for the education of the Welsh in the reformed doctrines. Without possessing a Bible in the vernacular, it was impossible for the Welsh clergy or laity to follow the reformed service, though this defect was partially remedied a few years earlier by the translation into Welsh of the English prayer book, for it must be remembered that at that time none of the people of the northern Welsh dioceses, and very few indeed in the south, spoke or understood a word of English.

This edition is so scarce that there is only one copy, and that imperfect, in the National Library. How little it was used may be gathered from the fact that it was not till 1820, thirty-two years afterward, that a revised edition was published. After this time other editions appear at intervals of from ten to twenty years down to the year 1897, and at somewhat shorter intervals down to 1878, which is the date of the last calendar Welsh Bible in the catalogue of the British Museum.—Quarterly Review.

Something in a Name.

A gentleman registered at a Sutter street boarding-house one day recently under the name of Emory Vere de Vere. He had not been there three hours before a trusted porter had tested the weight of his luggage, and the landlady had demanded his rent in advance. The astonished and indignant man demanded the reason for this distrust, and the landlady frankly told him that his name was too high-sounding to inspire trust.

"Good heavens, madame," he said, "it is the name I use in my correspondence. My true name is Perkins. See my letters?"

And then the landlady smiled and said: "My dear sir as a Perkins you are welcome to this house and trusted; but anything that smacks of the British tourist short on his remittances can not get an attic-room here."—San Francisco News Letter.

FROM BLUEFIELDS.

Full Details of the Recent Troubles in that Country.

GEN. CABEZAS ROUGHLY HANDLED.

A Night Attack by the Natives Upon the Quartet—The Nicaraguan Garrison at the Bluffs Routed—Prisoners and Guns Captured.

MOBILE, Ala., July 20.—The Bluefields (Nicaragua) correspondent of the Register sends that paper full details of the recent trouble in Bluefields.

On July 4 Gen. Cabezas, Nicaraguan commissioner at Bluefields, gave orders that no guns should be fired in the streets. This angered the Jamaican negroes, who said the Nicaraguans were celebrating. To get even they said they would drive the Nicaraguans from the place in a week.

On July 5, twelve Jamaican policemen applied for their pay during the month of June. Gen. Cabezas offered them such a small sum that they became furious, rushed upon Gen. Cabezas, threw him down and choked him severely. He cried for help, and soldiers responded and drove the policemen away.

The same night everyone who could get a gun gathered in front of the quartet and opened fire on it, keeping it up until daylight, riddling the building with shot. One Jamaican was shot through the thigh and several soldiers were wounded. The Nicaraguans did not return the fire.

In the meantime United States Consul beat and British Consul Hatch sent to the United States steamer Marbledale for help. On account of the rough sea the marines were not landed until the next day.

When the steamboat Handy left Bluefields on July 16, all the Nicaraguans in the place that could do so went on her to Rama city. A party of twenty natives and Jamaicans took two boats and went across lagoons, six miles, to the "bluffs," where there were fifteen Nicaraguan soldiers stationed. A fight took place in which three soldiers were killed, one drowned, one wounded, three escaped and seven were taken prisoners. The Jamaicans captured one gatling gun, one four-inch rifle gun, 250 rifles and a lot of ammunition.

On the morning of July 7 preparations were being made to attack the Nicaraguans again, when Gen. Cabezas offered to surrender the place if they would send him men to Rama, let them keep their arms, recognize him as a Nicaraguan commissioner and let him remain in Bluefields. The Jamaicans agreed, and Capt. O'Neill of the Marbledale, was one of the signers. Afterwards, Gen. Cabezas tried to break out, but Capt. O'Neill would not consent.

At 1 o'clock the Nicaraguan flag was pulled down and the Mosquito flag run up. At 3 p. m. the soldiers went aboard the steamer Hazel Wright, and left for Rama.

The steamer Henty was looked for on July 8, when it was feared she would bring an army of Nicaraguans, but she had not arrived up to July 9. The steamer Marbledale left on July 9 for Port Limon to communicate with the Washington authorities. The fifty marines are still kept in Bluefields.

The following is the declaration of sovereignty issued by Chief Clarence:

Proclamation.

Mosquito Reservation.

Bluefields, July 6, 1894.

I, Robert Henry Clarence, hereditary chief of Mosquito, hereby proclaim that I have assumed my rightful authority as chief of Mosquito. I call upon all law-abiding and royal residents to obey authority and that of my office.

ROBERT HENRY CLARENCE, Chief of Mosquito.

ORDERED TO BLUEFIELDS.

The Cruiser Columbia to Proceed to the Disturbed District.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The cruiser Columbia has been ordered to proceed immediately to Bluefields, M. R., to protect American interests during the disturbances now going on in that country. It is expected that the departure of the vessel will not be delayed beyond to-day.

It cannot be learned at the state or navy departments exactly what extraordinary emergency has suddenly arisen to cause the dispatch of such a large vessel to the Mosquito coast at this time. The Columbia carries a regular crew of 490 men.

The United Press dispatches from Bluefields gave an intimation of the possible cause of hurrying the Columbia to the field as the landing of marines by Sergt. O'Neill. The dispatches also mention the prevailing rumor that the Nicaraguan authorities have threatened several Americans with death unless they leave the place at once.

It is extremely likely that either the state or navy department or both of them have similar information brought by the same steamer to New Orleans but the officials refuse to say whether they have or not.

Will Fight It Out in Persia.

St. Petersburg, July 20.—A statement is published here that the Russian petroleum merchants have failed, at the last moment, to come to an agreement with the representatives of the Standard Oil Co. and that the Russian and American oil companies will fight. They each will try to get a concession from the shah to build a pipe line through Persia.

Robbed His Clients and Absconded.

VIENNA, July 20.—Herr Bettelheim, a prominent financier and member of the Vienna bourse, has absconded, taking with him bonds and other securities belonging to his clients, to the aggregate value of $150,000.

CREATES A STIR AMONG THE SENATORS

Who Declare that the Senate Tariff Bill or None Shall Ultimately be Passed—Several Senators to Speak on the Subject To-Day.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—From talks with senators, the indications are that the president's letter to Mr. Wilson will precipitate an animated discussion on the floor of the senate to-day. There will be no limit to the debate, and before the consideration of the conference report as the main subject is over, some very plain language, it is asserted, will be used by some of the senators who have been designated as the "conservatives."

It is also said that three of these senators will make their replies when Mr. Voorhees calls up the report immediately after the reading of the journal to-day. These three are Senators Smith, Gorman and Bruce. Mr. Hill will also speak.

Mr. Smith, if the rumors about him be true, will make a speech in which he will warn the conferees that they have violated the faith placed in them when they receded from the senate amendments and agreed as has been reported, that they would accept the house schedule on woolens, cottons, etc. He will outline the situation as he sees it and will, it is said, in his conclusions, tell the senate, the president, the country and the house of representatives that they can accept the senate bill or no bill at all so far as his vote is concerned.

Mr. Gorman, who was in close conference with Mr. Jones and Mr. Murphy all the afternoon, went home as soon as the senate adjourned. It is said that he, too, will echo the sentiments that he has uttered, and will warn the house that if it persists in the course adopted by it to-day, it will end in defeating a bill which is for the best interests of the whole country, and which was the product of very serious attention on the part of the senate, and formulated as the only bill that would hope to meet with success. Mr. Gorman, if the statements of his friends mean anything, is more firmly grounded in his original plan than ever.

Mr. Bruce will have a few words to say about the senate bill, in which he, too, will join his colleagues in letting the country know that it is the senate bill, and not the house bill, that is to ultimately become the law of the land. There was a rumor about last night that the senate democrats were now declaring that their bill should pass without the dotting of an "i" or the crossing of a "t," but one of the conservatives denied this, saying that there were many items in the senate bill upon which concessions would be made, but that in the main the senate idea of a tariff should prevail or there could be no bill; with this the idea also prevails in the senate that the bill will not be defeated, but that the house will ultimately give in rather than see no tariff bill passed at all.

Mr. Gorman, with some indignation, last night denied the story that had been circulated to the effect that he had surrendered and had given his consent that it should go back to the free list.

A MAN HUNT.

Escaping Chase of a Negro Charged with Attempted Assault on a White Woman.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 20.—Yesterday afternoon a mob of 1,000 people turned out in the main street of Memphis to give chase after a negro who attempted an assault upon a respectable white woman of this city. The assault was made three weeks ago. The negro, Tom Wilson, went to the house of Mrs. Tom Wilson to sell chickens. He followed her into the house and made advances upon her, but she fled, screaming, and the negro fled too.

Yesterday afternoon he passed the house again. Mrs. Holt pointed him out to her husband, who gave chase. The negro ran. The crowds upon the streets took up the chase. A half dozen shots were fired at the fugitive, and at last he was brought to bay. The crowd did not know of what crime he was accused or else he might have been done for. He was placed in jail and confessed his guilt. The law will be allowed to take its course.

A Split in the Indiana State Federation of Labor Convention.

PENN. IND., July 20.—The Indiana State Federation of Labor convention was divided yesterday, and the Penn. and Indianapolis delegates withdrew disgruntled when the resolution endorsing the people's party was brought up and finally carried. Other things, notably the adoption of the resolution requesting the Democratic party to run for governor of the state, caused much dissatisfaction among the delegates. The officers elected were: President, James F. Schanck, South Bend; secretary-treasurer, J. J. May, Logansport. The next convention will be held in October, 1895, at Wayne.

Strike Off—To Reopen at a Reduction.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., July 20.—The strike among the potters at this place was declared off yesterday morning, and work will be resumed at once. The wage scale will be governed by the terms of the Trenton (N. J.) compromise, 12 1/2 per cent. reduction.

A Fatal Explosion.

DAYTON, O., July 20.—A special from Kent, O., says: A threatening machine engine on John Case's farm, near here, exploded yesterday, blowing one man's head off, fatally injuring another, and seriously wounding a third.

FIFTY-THIRD CONGRESS.

(First Session.)
SENATE.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Although the consideration of the Indian appropriation bill was closed, before the adjournment of the senate on Wednesday, so far as the amendments recommended by the appropriations committee were concerned, the bill occupied the attention of the senate during all of today's session. The main cause of delay was an amendment offered by Senator Squire, to allow the Puyallup Indians holding lands in severalty in Washington state, to sell portions of them. The discussion of this question occupied over three hours, and was finally decided in the negative—the amendment being laid on the table by a vote of 28 to 10. The bill was finally passed.

The conference report on the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill was agreed to, and the statement was made by the chairman of the committee on appropriations that the two remaining appropriation bills—the two remaining civil and the deficiency—would not be reported to the senate for some few days yet.

The consideration of the Indian bill was temporarily suspended at 3 p. m., when the message from the house asking a further conference on the tariff bill was laid before the senate, followed by an oral report from Mr. Voorhees, chairman of the finance committee, to the effect that the conferees had not been able to agree. He gave notice that he would call the matter up for consideration and action tomorrow morning, and Mr. Hill followed that up with a motion that he would move to instruct the conferees to accept the house bill, and would address the senate on that subject. With a smile of sarcastic humor, Mr. Mander-son asked Mr. Voorhees whether there was any message from the president on that subject, and was responded to in three brief words, delivered in a somewhat tone: "Not to me."

The senate, at 6:15, adjourned until tomorrow.

The first battle in the open over the differences between the house and senate was fought to-day in the house of representatives in the presence of a large and deeply interested audience. For the first time in a month the galleries were full, and nearly every seat on the floor was occupied.

Hostilities began immediately after the journals had been read, when Mr. Outwater presented an order from the committee on rules providing for two hours' debate on the report of the conferees on the tariff bill and restricting action of the house to voting on a motion to insist on disagreement to the senate amendments in bulk.

The order was antagonized by Mr. Reed and Mr. Johnson, the latter of whom wanted an opportunity to vote separately on the sugar schedule. It was agreed to without a division, however, and then Mr. Wilson, chairman of the committee on ways and means, with his face hidden under a handkerchief, binding a bandage about his eyes, in which he seated his neuritic troubles, from which he is suffering sorely, reported the failure of the conference to agree, and moved that the house insist upon its disagreement to the senate amendments.

Speaking to the motion, Mr. Wilson gave a very frank statement of the differences between the house and senate conferees and the reasons therefor. He was frequently interrupted by applause from his political associates, which arose to the tumultuous when he declared in favor of never adjourning until the duty on refined sugar had been repealed, whatever might be the fate of the general tariff bill.

In conclusion, he read a letter from President Cleveland approving the features of the Wilson bill as it passed the house, and advising the conferees to stand firm for the principles contained in the bill at that stage of its existence.

After further debate by Mr. Reed, Mr. Wheeler and Mr. Grow, the motion was agreed to, and Speaker Crisp reappointed the conferees on the part of the house.

In the course of the session the conference reports on the naval and the diplomatic and consular appropriation bills were presented and agreed to.

An order from the committee on rules was agreed to, taking up the Tucker joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution so as to permit the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people as the next order of business, a vote on its passage to be taken at 4 o'clock Friday.

On Saturday the Ryan bill, directing the re-employment as fast as vacancies occur of those railway post-office clerks who were dismissed between March 15 and May 1, 1890 (when the service was put under civil-service rules), will be the special order, a vote to be taken 4 o'clock.

The Tucker joint resolution was advocated by Mr. Deamond, and at 5 o'clock the house adjourned until tomorrow.

An Explosion at Homestead.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 19.—An explosion occurred to-day in the converting mill of the Homestead steel works. Four men were terribly burned and two of them will die. The explosion occurred just as one of the converters was about to be emptied. The four men who were injured were working in the pit and when the hot metal was poured out and struck the damp ground it was scattered in every direction.

A DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

The Central Market Building in Minneapolis

AND MANY OTHER BUILDINGS BURNED.

Entailing a Loss of Over Half a Million—Narrow Escape from Explosion of a Large Illuminating Gas Reservoir—The Losses.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 20.—The Central market building, occupying an entire block of ground between Second and Third avenues north, and Sixth and Seventh streets, was totally destroyed by fire last night together with several small dwelling and a livery stable. The total loss will be in the neighborhood of $600,000. The market house was a three-story brick structure. The cause of the fire is unknown, but it was discovered in the court about 9 o'clock.

An alarm, quickly followed by a second and third, and in a few minutes a general alarm, was turned in, but the building was doomed before a stream of water was turned on the flames, and the firemen turned their attention to the building across the street.

A short distance from where the fire started stood Matteson's livery stable, and here a great danger menaced not only the firemen, but valuable property as well. Immediately adjoining the stable was a big reservoir belonging to the Minneapolis Gas Light Co., in which was stored 62,000,000 feet of illuminating gas. To keep the flames from reaching this was the hazardous undertaking of a large detachment of the fire department. The firemen did their work well, and although the intense heat set fire to the cupola of the building, the fire was kept from the highly inflammable material within.

Next to the livery stable, toward the Seventh-street side, were several frame dwelling and a tenement row which, with the greater portion of their contents, were destroyed.

The heaviest losers are: Central Market Co., $175,000; Gamble, Robinson Co., $17,000; E. C. Potter & Co., $7,000; W. H. Coon, $12,000; Gottsaworth & Drew, $2,000; Crescent Creamery Co., $2,000; H. A. Castle, $5,000; Samuel Anderson, restaurant in Matteson block, $5,000; Schuster & Sons, $7,000; S. B. Matteson, livery stable and block, $30,000.

Besides these there are some two score firms and individuals whose losses are under $5,000. The market was insured for $100,000.

While clearing up the wreck after the fire Myron C. Finley, a fireman employed by the Brush Electric Light Co., came in contact with a live wire and died while being taken to the hospital.

ARKANSAS POPULISTS

Gather Three Hundred Strong in State Convention at Little Rock.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 20.—There are 300 delegates in attendance upon the state convention of populists, sixty-two out of seventy-seven counties of the state being represented. The convention did not get beyond the business of permanent organization yesterday, Homer Prince being made permanent chairman, J. W. Dolzow, secretary, and W. W. Manning, assistant secretary. The committee on platform and resolutions was appointed, speeches were made by leaders of the party and adjournment was taken until to-day.

W. I. Marks is conceded to have the gubernatorial nomination safe in hand. There are altogether over 1,500 populists gathered in the city, they having come afoot, on horseback and in wagons from all parts of the state. Five hundred of them are in camp north of the city, and yesterday morning they formed a grotesque procession and marched through the city, wearing badges bearing the legend: "Keep Off the Grass," and waving what are known as Casey flags.

The populists of the fifth and sixth congressional districts held their conventions here yesterday. A. D. Tanner, of Lonoke county, was put up to make the race in the sixth, and John C. Peel, of Benton county, in the fifth district. Peel is a brother of ex-Congressman Sam D. Peel.

THREATENED LYNCHING

Of a White Man for an Outrageous Assault Upon a Child.

RECTOR, Ark., July 19.—It is likely that before morning John Bolen, a white man, will have been lynched for an outrageous assault upon a child. Bolen is from Buffalo Island, Mo. A couple of days ago he visited the house of R. J. Wright, of Green county, and while Mr. Wright was away he assaulted 10-year-old Emma Wright, lacerating her terribly so that she is expected to die. Bolen fled, but was discovered hiding in a lumber pile a few miles away. He was brought here and lodged in jail. Excitement is intense, and the sheriff has mustered a strong posse, but it is believed should a mob make an attack there would be little resistance.

Six Months for Assault.

A Canadian Lad Deliberately Drowns the Companion of His Bath.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 20.—A case which recalls the vicious acts of Jesse Pomeroy, of Boston, has been reported by the police. Two lads, named Bellevue and Blanchard, aged respectively 8 and 13, went in bathing on the outskirts of the city. After inducing his companion to wade out to where the water was two feet deep Blanchard threw him down and held him there with his knees upon his back until life was extinct. He watched the bubbles rise to the surface as the air went out of his victim's lungs, and when they stopped, and he knew it was all over, he ran away. Blanchard has been arrested.

The Troubles of Geo. W. Davidson and Wife in Court.

Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. George W. Davidson, who separated some time ago, came together in the vicinity of Justice Peledcord's office and there was trouble at once, in which an umbrella figured as a weapon of warfare. Mrs. Davidson assaulted her husband with the umbrella and wrecked it, and in the collision Mrs. Davidson was slightly hurt. Davidson had gone to the Scott abstract office to see Miss Pearl Covington who was with her friend Miss Ella Stevens. Pearl is friendly to George, her step-father, and the mother is alone in her trouble so far as family relations are concerned. After the row Mrs. D. had her injury dressed by Dr. Sibley. Later Davidson was arrested for assault and Attorney Hutchinson prosecuted the case in Justice Peledcord's court, J. M. Gray appearing for Davidson. The defendant was fined $10 and costs. J. C. Stevens who had come into the Scott office while the row was in progress was slapped on the mouth by Mrs. Davidson. He had Mrs. D. arrested and the trial was had by jury in Justice Shorb's court. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

Then Davidson had his wife arrested on a city warrant charging her with assault, and to-day the trial by jury is in progress in Justice Shorb's court. City Attorney Lee and Attorney Gray appear for the prosecution and Attorney Hutchinson is the defendant's counsel.

PAID THE BILL.

No Big Kick Against Paying $617 for the Burial of E. F. Hyde.

Some time ago a laboring man named Edward P. Hyde, who left $2000 life insurance to Anna Johnson, passed away in death, and he was given an imposing funeral by Easterly Camp, Modern Woodmen, of which he was a member. The funeral cost $617, as shown by the bill presented by D. Brintlinger, the undertaker. Mrs. Johnson objected to some of the items, and it was given out that when the case came up in the county court there would be a hot contest. The matter was before Judge Nelson in the county court to-day, and a jury was secured to hear the evidence. They were W. M. Holmes, L. H. Martin, C. H. Collins, James Mitchell, John Froman and A. Q. Gharett. Leforgee & Lee appeared for Mrs. Johnson, and Attorney Buckingham for Mr. Brintlinger. The case was compromised and settled by agreement without a trial. Judgment was given for the full amount of the claim, $617, which amount will come out of the $2000 willed to Mrs. Johnson. It is not clear on what points the compromise was effected.

Suit for $10,000.

Daniel Maher has entered suit against A. T. England, one of the wealthy farmers of Platt county, for $10,000 damages. Maher lived on England's farm and, in settling up their accounts in the office of Judge A. T. Piper, at Monticello, a dispute arose and England struck Maher on the head with a chair, which caused him very serious injury and so affected his brain that his reason was destroyed. He has been in the Platt county poor house ever since. Maher was the young man that was engaged to marry Miss Emma Sprague, for whom Winn Weaver committed suicide at Monticello last spring in the Sangamon river.

Survival of the Fittest.

The Wabash officials are pursuing a policy which is intended to raise the standard of service by its employees to that which obtained before the strike was declared. Applications are received for places every day. Men who come well recommended are given a fair trial and if they meet the Wabash requirements they are retained; if not, they are released and others have a chance. By this plan a number of new men are taken on every day, but many are discharged for incompetency. The number is growing smaller each day, and this means that the road will soon be manned throughout in a way the management desire. The men who are given trials come, as a general thing, from other roads, and do not live here. This policy of "the survival of the fittest" is applied almost entirely to the engineers and firemen.

RAIN AT LAST.

It Came at Noon and Was More Than Welcome.

Sweltering humanity, the parched earth, the red-hued pastures and lawns, the curling corn and the farmers generally have been wishing for rain these many days, nearly a month. The people have watched the scudding clouds anxiously and they have read of rains at other points with envious interest.

Now Decatur and Macon county people have no cause for complaint. The drouth has been broken, and the dry spell is no more. The rain-charged clouds came our way to-day at noon, and after a little flirting of Miss Lightning with Mr. Thunder, we got an old-fashioned rain—more than enough to make the dirt streets muddy and wet things generally. The down spouts sent forth foaming streams of water, and soon the streets were like rivers. It was a glorious rain and everybody was glad to welcome it, even if it did come when people were about to hasten home to dinner. Many remained down town to patronize hotels and restaurants.

IN THE COUNTRY.

Reports from out of town are to the effect that the rain was general, extending to all parts of the county. Some parts of the county got good rains last night.

Fullerton for Congress.

Mal. Thomas C. Fullerton, of Ottawa, was nominated by the Republicans yesterday for congress in the Eleventh district on the 11st ballot. His friends in Decatur will be pleased to hear of this nomination. He is one of the most popular men in his part of the state, and is well equipped in every way to represent his district in congress. He was born in Montgomery county, Pa., in 1839, and came to Illinois in 1855 and settled in La Salle county. He enlisted in 1861 in the Sixty-fifth Illinois infantry, and served until the close of the war. After the war he studied law, and has succeeded in his profession. He is prominent in G. A. R. circles. He will succeed Gen. Henderson, of Bureau county.

Free Methodist Camp Meeting.

The Free Methodist camp meeting at Oakland Park is drawing to a close, Sunday night being the last service. Up to the present time it has been a success, a number having professed conversion. Eason, of Litchfield, Rev. Flower, of Wisconsin, Rev. Webb, of Hopedale, Rev. J. W. Edwards and Rev. Ashcraft, of Mason City, Rev. W. R. Bonham, of Hillsboro, and others. Rev. B. R. Jones of Chicago, editor of the Free Methodist, arrived last night and will preach this evening at 8 o'clock.

The Rain.

There were good rains last night in Austin, Macon, Long Creek, Whitmore, Oakley and Mt. Zion townships. Enough fell to make the roads quite muddy.
